

- (1) In 2012 the CGA formed the Stakeholder Advocacy Committee as an outcome of the 2012 Strategic Plan. Committee Goal: Proactively work with local stakeholders to educate state policymakers regarding use of CGA best practices to positively impact state legislation and/or regulations under consideration. CGA Board members serve to assure mission objectives are met.

- (1) In 2012 the CGA formed the Stakeholder Advocacy Committee as an outcome of the 2012 Strategic Plan. Committee Goal: Proactively work with local stakeholders to educate state policymakers regarding use of CGA best practices to positively impact state legislation and/or regulations under consideration. CGA Board members serve to assure mission objectives are met.
- (2) The Stakeholder Advocacy Committee (SA Committee) is composed of two Co-Chairs and is open to members of all CGA stakeholder groups. Task Teams are also headed by two Co-Chairs. SA Committee members are strongly encouraged to serve on an active task team. Task Teams report back to the full Committee and seek consensus vote on any major issues.

- (1) In 2012 the CGA formed the Stakeholder Advocacy Committee as an outcome of the 2012 Strategic Plan. Committee Goal: Proactively work with local stakeholders to educate state policymakers regarding use of CGA best practices to positively impact state legislation and/or regulations under consideration. CGA Board members serve to assure mission objectives are met.
- (2) The Stakeholder Advocacy Committee (SA Committee) is composed of two Co-Chairs and is open to members of all CGA stakeholder groups. Task Teams are also headed by two Co-Chairs. SA Committee members are strongly encouraged to serve on an active task team. Task Teams report back to the full Committee and seek consensus vote on any major issues.
- (3) The SA Committee works with other CGA committees as needed to help meet mission objectives, disseminate information, and recruit members. Best Practices and OCSI are two way connections while the other committees only receive information from SA Committee.

- (1) In 2012 the CGA formed the Stakeholder Advocacy Committee as an outcome of the 2012 Strategic Plan. Committee Goal: Proactively work with local stakeholders to educate state policymakers regarding use of CGA best practices to positively impact state legislation and/or regulations under consideration. CGA Board members serve to assure mission objectives are met.
- (2) The Stakeholder Advocacy Committee (SA Committee) is composed of two Co-Chairs and is open to members of all CGA stakeholder groups. Task Teams are also headed by two Co-Chairs. SA Committee members are strongly encouraged to serve on an active task team. Task Teams report back to the full Committee and seek consensus vote on any major issues.
- (3) The SA Committee works with other CGA committees as needed to help meet mission objectives, disseminate information, and recruit members. Best Practices and OCSI are two way connections while the other committees only receive information from SA Committee.
- (4) CGA Staff assist with meetings and coordination of materials and additional resources.